

Peace Officer Tuition Exemption

The BAAS with a Criminal Justice Concentration is a Peace Officer Tuition Exemption Participating Program under HB 2347. This tuition exemption program was implemented fall 2011 at MSU. The BAAS program is included on the College for All Texans website's list of colleges and universities in Texas participating in this tuition exemption program. Please visit the College for All Texans website's to review the requirements regarding the Exemption for Peace Officer's Enrolled in Law Enforcement or Criminal Justice Courses.

In order to be considered for this exemption you must comply with the following:

- Be a currently employed peace officer in the state of Texas
- Have a BAAS Degree Plan which indicates Criminal Justice Concentration
- Been advised and cleared by the BAAS Advisor to enroll into CRJU applicable courses
- Have on file at the MSU Business Office a letter which verifies current employment status as a licensed peace officer. The letter must be received at the Business Office no later than one week before the end (check the date each semester) of the regular registration period the exemption is requested. A current letter must be submitted each semester you are enrolled and plan to use the tuition exemption waiver. (Link to tuition exemption example letter)

1. The letter must be on agency/organization's official letterhead. It must include student's name, Student ID number, and reference in the subject line: "Law Enforcement Tuition Exemption". The letter must clearly state the student's active employment status. It must be signed by someone (other than yourself) in the Human Resources Department of your organization.
